Mutual Confidentiality, Non-Disclosure & Non-Circumvention Agreement

MCNDA | English authoritative text

1. PARTIES

This Mutual Confidentiality, Non-Disclosure and Non-Circumvention Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into on the date of the last required authorised signature (the "Effective Date") between Party A and each additional Party identified in the immutable Party Schedule attached to this Agreement.

Party A is La Clava Elit BV, trading as Nexora International, having its business address at Herengracht 208, 1016 BS Amsterdam, The Netherlands. Website: https://www.nexint.eu/ | Email: info@nexint.eu | Telephone: +31 (0)85-200 9082, acting through its authorised representative. Each additional Party is separately identified in the Party Schedule by legal name or full personal name, address, registration details where applicable, designated representative and capacity. A company is bound through its verified authorised representative. A private individual is personally bound only where expressly identified as an individual Party. A representative is not personally a Party merely by signing for a company. A broker or introducer link alone confers no authority to bind another Party. All are collectively the "Parties". Each Party owes the applicable obligations independently to each other Party; no joint or several liability, agency or joint venture is created merely by signing this Agreement. The Party Schedule and each authorised execution record form part of this single Agreement. The Parties wish to evaluate, negotiate, introduce, facilitate and, if separately agreed, execute transactions relating to:

- Crude Oil
- Refined Petroleum Products
- Petrochemicals
- LNG & LPG
- Fertilizers
- Agricultural Commodities
- Precious Metals
- Mining Products
- Maritime & Shipping Services
- Tank Storage
- Logistics
- Commodity Finance
- Trade Finance
- Strategic Investments
- Any other lawful international commodity or infrastructure transaction mutually agreed between the Parties. In connection with such discussions, each Party may disclose proprietary, confidential and commercially sensitive information. Accordingly, the Parties agree to protect such information and the commercial relationships arising therefrom in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

2. DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

2.1 Agreement "Agreement" means this Mutual Non-Disclosure, Non-Circumvention & Confidentiality Agreement, including all schedules, appendices, amendments and attachments executed by the Parties.

2.2 Affiliate "Affiliate" means any company, corporation, partnership, joint venture or other legal entity that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with a Party.

2.3 Confidential Information "Confidential Information" means any information disclosed by any Party, whether in written, electronic, digital, oral or any other form, including but not limited to:

- commercial opportunities;
- supplier and buyer identities;
- mandates and appointments;
- refinery allocations;
- crude oil and refined petroleum product allocations;
- LNG, LPG and petrochemical opportunities;
- commodity specifications;
- product pricing, discounts and commercial structures;
- commission agreements and IMFPA arrangements;
- banking information;
- financial information;
- proof of funds;
- letters of credit;
- vessel nominations;
- shipping schedules;
- charter party agreements;
- bills of lading;
- cargo documentation;
- terminal information;
- storage facilities;
- logistics arrangements;
- inspection reports;
- assay reports;
- contracts and amendments;
- trade finance structures;
- investor information;
- strategic business plans;
- customer databases;
- proprietary know-how;
- business methodologies;
- software, systems and databases;
- trade secrets; and
- any other information which a reasonable commercial person would consider confidential. Confidential Information shall remain confidential whether or not specifically marked "Confidential."

2.4 Introduced Party "Introduced Party" means any buyer, seller, supplier, refinery, national oil company, producer, terminal operator, storage provider, shipping company, vessel owner, charterer, financier, bank, investor, consultant, intermediary, broker, mandate or any other person or entity first introduced by one Party to the other during the term of this Agreement.

2.5 Transaction "Transaction" means any actual or proposed commercial activity, negotiation, agreement, purchase, sale, exchange, investment, financing or service involving commodities, energy products or related commercial opportunities introduced by any Party.

2.6 Commodity "Commodity" includes, without limitation:

- crude oil;
- refined petroleum products;
- LNG;
- LPG;
- condensates;
- petrochemicals;
- fertilizers;
- agricultural commodities;
- minerals;
- metals;
- precious metals;
- industrial raw materials;
- renewable energy products; and
- any other commodity mutually agreed upon by the Parties.

2.7 Representatives "Representatives" means a Party's directors, officers, employees, shareholders, consultants, legal advisers, accountants, auditors, financial advisers, technical advisers, affiliates and other professional representatives who have a legitimate need to receive Confidential Information for the purposes of the Transaction and who are bound by confidentiality obligations no less restrictive than those contained herein.

2.8 Intellectual Property “Intellectual Property” means all copyrights, trademarks, patents, trade names, databases, proprietary information, business processes, commercial methodologies, software, documentation and all other intellectual property rights belonging to any Party.

2.9 Business Day “Business Day” means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or official public holiday in the jurisdiction governing this Agreement.

2.10 Applicable Law “Applicable Law” means all applicable international treaties, national laws, regulations, sanctions, anti-money laundering legislation, anti-bribery legislation and governmental regulations governing the activities contemplated under this Agreement.

Interpretation Unless the context requires otherwise:

- words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa;
- references to one gender include all genders;
- headings are included for convenience only and shall not affect interpretation;
- references to persons include natural persons, corporations, partnerships, governments, state-owned enterprises and all other legal entities;
- references to legislation include all amendments, replacements and successor legislation.

3. PURPOSE OF THE AGREEMENT

3.1 Purpose The Parties acknowledge that they may disclose Confidential Information to one another for the purpose of identifying, evaluating, negotiating, facilitating and, where mutually agreed, executing commercial opportunities and Transactions. Such Transactions may include, but are not limited to:

- the purchase and sale of crude oil;
- refined petroleum products;
- LNG, LPG and condensates;
- petrochemicals;
- fertilizers and agricultural commodities;
- metals and mining products;
- maritime transportation and shipping services;
- tank storage and terminal operations;
- commodity financing and trade finance;
- infrastructure and energy projects;
- strategic investments and joint ventures; and
- any other lawful commercial activity agreed in writing by the Parties.

3.2 Exchange of Information Each Party may voluntarily disclose Confidential Information that it considers reasonably necessary for the evaluation, negotiation or execution of a potential Transaction. No Party shall be under any obligation to disclose any specific information unless it elects to do so in its sole discretion.

3.3 No Obligation to Proceed The execution of this Agreement shall not:

- obligate any Party to enter into any Transaction;
- require any Party to continue negotiations;
- constitute an offer capable of acceptance;
- create any exclusivity unless separately agreed in writing;
- create any partnership, joint venture, agency, employment relationship or fiduciary relationship between the Parties. Each Party shall remain free to discontinue discussions at any time without liability, provided that the obligations contained in this Agreement continue to apply.

3.4 Good Faith The Parties agree to conduct all discussions, negotiations and exchanges of information in good faith, in a professional manner and in accordance with internationally accepted commercial practices. Each Party further agrees to avoid any conduct intended to mislead, deceive, circumvent or unfairly prejudice the commercial interests of each other affected Party.

3.5 Compliance The Parties acknowledge that all Transactions contemplated under this Agreement shall be conducted in full compliance with all applicable:

- international laws and regulations;
- sanctions regimes;
- anti-money laundering (AML) legislation;
- counter-terrorist financing (CTF) legislation;
- anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws, including the UK Bribery Act and the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA), where applicable;
- export control regulations; and
- know-your-customer (KYC) requirements. Each Party reserves the right to suspend or terminate discussions if it reasonably believes that a proposed Transaction would violate any applicable law or regulatory requirement.

3.6 Independent Evaluation Each Party acknowledges that it is solely responsible for conducting its own legal, financial, technical and commercial due diligence before entering into any Transaction. No Party makes any representation or warranty as to the accuracy, completeness or suitability of any Confidential Information, except where expressly confirmed in writing.

3.7 Preservation of Commercial Relationships The Parties acknowledge that the introductions, business relationships, commercial opportunities and market intelligence exchanged under this Agreement are valuable proprietary assets. Accordingly, each Party undertakes to respect the confidentiality of such information and the commercial relationships established through each other affected Party, in accordance with the confidentiality and non-circumvention provisions of this Agreement.

4. CONFIDENTIALITY OBLIGATIONS

4.1 Duty of Confidentiality Each Party (“Receiving Party”) shall maintain in strict confidence all Confidential Information received from each other affected Party (“Disclosing Party”) and shall exercise at least the same degree of care in protecting such Confidential Information as it applies to its own confidential information of a similar nature, and in no event less than a reasonable standard of care.

4.2 Permitted Use Confidential Information shall be used solely for the purpose of evaluating, negotiating, facilitating or executing potential Transactions between the Parties and for no other purpose unless expressly authorized in writing by the Disclosing Party.

4.3 Restricted Disclosure No Party shall disclose Confidential Information to any third party without the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party, except where disclosure is required to:

- directors, officers or employees;
- affiliated companies;
- legal counsel;
- accountants;
- auditors;
- insurers;
- banks;
- financiers;
- regulators; or
- professional advisers, provided that such persons have a legitimate need to know and are bound by confidentiality obligations no less restrictive than those contained in this Agreement.

4.4 Exceptions The confidentiality obligations shall not apply to information which the Receiving Party can demonstrate: a. was lawfully known prior to disclosure; b. becomes publicly available through no breach of this Agreement; c. is lawfully obtained from an independent third party; d. is independently developed without reference to the Confidential Information; or e. must be disclosed pursuant to a court order, governmental authority or applicable law, provided that the Receiving Party gives prompt written notice to the Disclosing Party where legally permissible.

4.5 Standard of Protection Each Party shall implement appropriate administrative, technical and organizational safeguards to prevent unauthorized access, disclosure, copying or misuse of Confidential Information.

5. NON-DISCLOSURE OF COMMERCIAL RELATIONSHIPS

5.1 Protection of Business Relationships The Parties acknowledge that their commercial relationships, introductions, supplier networks, customer relationships and strategic contacts constitute valuable proprietary business assets. No Party shall disclose the identity of any Introduced Party without the prior written consent of the introducing Party.

5.2 No Direct Contact Except with the introducing Party's prior written approval, nany Party shall directly or indirectly contact, negotiate with or transact with any Introduced Party outside the framework of the contemplated Transaction.

5.3 No Unauthorized Use No Party shall use any Confidential Information or commercial relationship obtained through each other affected Party for its own benefit or for the benefit of any third party without prior written authorization.

6. NON-CIRCUMVENTION

6.1 Covenant Not to Circumvent The Parties agree that they shall not, directly or indirectly, circumvent, avoid, bypass or otherwise interfere with the business relationships, commercial interests or economic benefits of each other affected Party in relation to any Introduced Party.

6.2 Protected Parties This protection expressly includes, but is not limited to:

- Buyers;
- Sellers;
- End Buyers;
- End Sellers;
- National Oil Companies (NOCs);
- Refineries;
- Commodity Producers;
- Mining Companies;
- Shipping Companies;
- Shipowners;
- Charterers;
- Vessel Operators;
- Storage Providers;
- Terminal Operators;
- Port Authorities;
- Banks;
- Financial Institutions;
- Trade Finance Providers;
- Investors;
- Government Agencies;
- Mandates;
- Brokers;
- Consultants;
- Agents;
- Intermediaries; and
- any affiliate or successor introduced during the term of this Agreement.

6.3 Prohibited Conduct No Party shall, without the express written consent of the introducing Party:

- negotiate directly;
- conclude contracts;
- alter agreed commercial structures;
- reduce commissions;
- replace intermediaries;
- redirect payments;
- establish parallel negotiations; or
- otherwise deprive the introducing Party of its legitimate commercial participation.

6.4 Continuing Protection Confidentiality, non-disclosure and the restrictions in Articles 5, 6 and 8.3 apply from the Effective Date. For a Transaction identified in writing by the Parties during the term, those obligations continue until sixty (60) months after its Closing, and in any event no earlier than five (5) years after expiry or termination of this Agreement. "Closing" means the completion date expressly identified as such in the signed Transaction documentation or subsequently confirmed in writing by the Parties concerned. A monthly delivery or commission payment does not itself restart the period. If a Transaction does not close, or no Closing date is established, the obligations continue for five (5) years after expiry or termination. These periods apply only to the relevant information, introduction and Transaction. A longer period requires a signed amendment by all affected Parties.

7. COMMISSION, REMUNERATION & FEE PROTECTION

7.1 Recognition of Commercial Interests The Parties acknowledge that one or all Parties may be entitled to commissions, facilitation fees, brokerage fees, advisory fees or other forms of remuneration arising from Transactions introduced under this Agreement.

7.2 Protection of Fees No Party shall directly or indirectly reduce, eliminate, withhold, delay or otherwise interfere with any commission, facilitation fee or remuneration rightfully earned by each other affected Party under any separate commercial agreement, mandate, IMFPA, fee protection agreement or transaction document.

7.3 Separate Commercial Agreements The Parties acknowledge that commission structures, payment terms and remuneration arrangements shall be governed by the relevant:

- Mandate Agreement;
- Facilitation Agreement;
- IMFPA (Irrevocable Master Fee Protection Agreement);
- SPA (Sales & Purchase Agreement);
- Brokerage Agreement; or
- other written commercial agreement, executed in connection with the relevant Transaction.

7.4 Good Faith The Parties undertake to act in good faith to preserve agreed commercial structures and to ensure that all remuneration due to the entitled Party is paid in full and without unnecessary delay.

7.5 Equitable Relief The Parties acknowledge that any breach of Articles 5, 6 or 7 may cause irreparable commercial harm for which monetary damages alone may be insufficient. Accordingly, the non-breaching Party shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief, specific performance and any other remedies available under applicable law, without prejudice to its right to recover damages.

8. OWNERSHIP OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

8.1 Ownership All Confidential Information disclosed under this Agreement shall remain the exclusive property of the Disclosing Party. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as transferring, assigning, licensing or otherwise conveying any ownership rights, intellectual property rights or proprietary interests to the Receiving Party, except for the limited right to use such Confidential Information solely for the purposes contemplated by this Agreement.

8.2 Intellectual Property All patents, copyrights, trademarks, trade names, trade secrets, databases, software, methodologies, know-how, commercial processes and other intellectual property rights belonging to any Party shall remain the sole property of that Party.

No licence, assignment or transfer of any intellectual property rights is granted or implied by the disclosure of Confidential Information.

8.3 No Commercial Rights The receipt of Confidential Information shall not entitle any Party to:

- manufacture or market any product;
- solicit or contract with any Introduced Party;
- reproduce proprietary documentation;
- use proprietary systems or methodologies; or
- exploit the commercial value of the disclosed information, except as expressly authorised in writing.

9. RETURN OR DESTRUCTION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

9.1 Return of Information Upon written request by the Disclosing Party, or upon termination of this Agreement, the Receiving Party shall promptly:

- return all Confidential Information;
- permanently delete electronic copies where reasonably practicable; and
- destroy any working copies or reproductions, unless retention is required by applicable law or regulatory obligation.

9.2 Archival Copy Each Party may retain one secure archival copy solely for:

- legal compliance;
- regulatory purposes;
- audit requirements; or
- defence of legal claims. Such archival copy shall remain subject to the confidentiality obligations of this Agreement.

9.3 Certification Upon written request, the Receiving Party shall confirm in writing that it has complied with this Article.

10. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

10.1 Authority Each Party confirms its legal capacity and authority to enter into this Agreement. A company signatory must be authorised to bind that company. A private individual signs in a personal capacity. Linking a broker or introducer to a client in the portal confers no authority to represent or bind that client.

10.2 Accuracy of Information Each Party believes that the information disclosed is accurate to the best of its knowledge at the time of disclosure. However, unless expressly stated otherwise in writing, no representation or warranty is made regarding the completeness, suitability or future accuracy of any Confidential Information.

10.3 Independent Due Diligence Each Party acknowledges that it remains solely responsible for conducting its own:

- commercial;
- financial;
- legal;
- regulatory; and
- technical due diligence before entering into any Transaction. No Party shall rely exclusively upon information received under this Agreement.

10.4 No Obligation to Transact Nothing contained in this Agreement obligates any Party to conclude any Transaction or continue negotiations.

11. TERM, TERMINATION AND SURVIVAL

11.1 Effective Date This Agreement shall become effective on the date of execution by the last required signing Party.

11.2 Duration Unless terminated earlier in accordance with this Article, this Agreement shall remain in force for twenty-four (24) months. The Parties may extend the Agreement by mutual written consent.

11.3 Termination Any Party may terminate this Agreement by giving thirty (30) calendar days' written notice to each other affected Party. Termination shall not affect any rights or obligations that arose prior to the effective date of termination.

11.4 Survival The provisions relating to:

- Confidentiality;
- Non-Disclosure;
- Non-Circumvention;
- Commission Protection;
- Intellectual Property;
- Governing Law;
- Dispute Resolution; and
- Remedies remain available to enforce surviving obligations. The confidentiality, non-disclosure and non-circumvention periods are governed by Article 6.4, including where no Transaction closes. Accrued rights and separate commission or payment agreements continue on their own terms, including recurring payments. Trade secrets remain protected while qualifying as such under applicable law. Ownership rights are not extinguished by expiry or termination. Articles 16, 17 and 18 continue to govern surviving rights, obligations and disputes.

12. DATA PROTECTION, COMPLIANCE AND SANCTIONS

12.1 Data Protection Each Party shall process any personal data exchanged under this Agreement in accordance with all applicable data protection legislation, including the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) where applicable, and any other relevant privacy laws.

12.2 Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption Each Party represents that it shall comply with all applicable anti-bribery and anti-corruption legislation, including, where applicable:

- the UK Bribery Act 2010;
- the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA); and
- equivalent legislation in the jurisdictions in which the Parties operate. No Party shall offer, promise, solicit or accept any improper payment or advantage in connection with any Transaction.

12.3 Anti-Money Laundering (AML) and Counter-Terrorist Financing (CTF) The Parties shall comply with all applicable AML and CTF laws and regulations and shall maintain appropriate Know Your Customer (KYC) procedures before entering into any Transaction. Each Party reserves the right to request reasonable documentation necessary to satisfy its compliance obligations.

12.4 Sanctions Compliance No Party shall knowingly engage in any Transaction that would violate applicable sanctions imposed by the United Nations, the European Union, the United States, the United Kingdom, or any other competent governmental authority applicable to that Party.

If any Party reasonably believes that a proposed Transaction may breach applicable sanctions or export control laws, it may suspend discussions or decline to proceed without incurring liability under this Agreement.

13. FORCE MAJEURE

13.1 Definition No Party shall be liable for any delay or failure in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement where such delay or failure results directly or indirectly from events beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to:

- acts of God;
- natural disasters;
- war (declared or undeclared);
- terrorism;
- civil unrest or riots;
- strikes or labour disputes;
- epidemics or pandemics;
- governmental actions;
- sanctions;
- embargoes;
- changes in applicable law;
- cyber-attacks;
- widespread telecommunications failures; or
- any other event that could not reasonably have been anticipated or avoided.

13.2 Notification The affected Party shall promptly notify each other affected Party in writing of the Force Majeure event, its expected duration and the measures being taken to mitigate its effects.

13.3 Resumption The affected Party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to resume performance as soon as practicable.

14. ASSIGNMENT

No Party may assign, transfer, delegate or otherwise dispose of any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of each other affected Party. This restriction shall not apply to assignments made to an Affiliate as part of an internal corporate reorganisation, provided that such Affiliate assumes all obligations contained herein.

15. NOTICES

15.1 Method of Delivery Contractual notices shall be in writing and may be delivered through the Nexora platform with a retained delivery record, by email to an address designated on the execution page, by WhatsApp to a number expressly designated there for notices, by internationally recognised courier, registered mail or personal delivery. A notice must identify this Agreement, its sender, intended recipient and purpose. A notice affecting all Parties must be sent separately to each Party.

- WhatsApp is an additional notice channel only after the relevant Party has designated its number in writing. A personal chat, group membership or publicly listed number alone is not a designation. Business documents, identity copies and execution of this Agreement remain within the secure platform or another signing service agreed in accordance with Article 19.6.

15.2 Deemed Receipt An electronic notice is received when the intended recipient expressly acknowledges it in writing or when a retained platform or WhatsApp delivery record shows delivery to the designated recipient account or number. A sent-only indicator is insufficient. Email requires an acknowledgement or a positive delivery confirmation; an outgoing email record alone is insufficient. A notice received after 17:00 Amsterdam time or on a non-Business Day is deemed received at 09:00 on the next Business Day. A courier or registered-mail notice is received on recorded delivery; personal delivery is received on documented handover.

- The sender shall retain the notice and delivery evidence. A disputed, failed or undelivered electronic notice shall be resent using another agreed channel; receipt is then determined by the successful channel. These provisions do not replace mandatory rules for service of proceedings or the ICC Rules for arbitration communications.

15.3 Change of Contact Details Each Party may change its notice details by a notice delivered under this Article. The change takes effect upon receipt by the other Parties. Before any WhatsApp number is designated, WhatsApp cannot be used to serve a contractual notice on that Party.

16. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with it are governed by the substantive laws of the Netherlands, excluding its conflict-of-laws rules. The arbitration agreement in Article 17 is also governed by Dutch law.

17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

All disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall be finally settled by arbitration administered by the International Court of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce under its Rules of Arbitration, with one arbitrator appointed in accordance with those Rules. The legal seat of arbitration shall be Paris, France. The language of arbitration shall be English. The Parties shall first seek a good-faith resolution for thirty (30) calendar days following a written dispute notice, without preventing commencement where needed to preserve a claim, comply with a time limit or seek urgent relief. A Party may seek emergency measures under the ICC Rules or interim or conservatory relief from a competent court without waiving this arbitration agreement. Nothing limits court powers under mandatory law in support of arbitration or concerning recognition, enforcement or setting aside of an award.

18. REMEDIES AND CONTRACTUAL PENALTY

Each Party is subject to the same obligations and remedies. For each separate attributable material breach of Articles 4, 5, 6, 7.2 or 8.3, the breaching Party owes a contractual penalty of EUR 1,000,000 to the injured Party or Parties collectively. A material breach means unauthorised use or disclosure of Confidential Information, prohibited disclosure or circumvention of a protected relationship, interference with an earned fee under Article 7.2, or prohibited exploitation under Article 8.3. A single act or connected course of conduct concerning the same information, introduction and Transaction counts as one breach, even if it breaches several provisions or injures several Parties. Separate independent breaches are cumulative; no daily multiplier applies. The penalty is not multiplied by the number of claimants. If several Parties are injured, its allocation is agreed between them or determined by the tribunal.

- The claimant shall give written particulars and supporting evidence of the alleged breach. Any notice or opportunity to remedy required by Dutch law remains applicable. If liability or amount is disputed, it shall be determined under Article 17. Nothing authorises automatic collection or deduction from a commission.
- To the extent permitted by Dutch law, the penalty is payable in addition to performance and proven recoverable damages, and is without prejudice to interim or injunctive relief, specific performance and reasonable costs awarded by the tribunal or competent court. The Parties expressly depart from the default substitution rules in Article 6:92(1) and (2) of the Dutch Civil Code to that extent.
- Any mandatory power to reduce a contractual penalty, including Article 6:94 of the Dutch Civil Code, remains unaffected. This clause does not guarantee recovery of the stated amount. A Party is responsible for its own attributable breach and any persons for whom it is legally responsible; it is not automatically liable for another Party's breach.

19. MISCELLANEOUS

19.1 Entire Agreement This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the Parties concerning the subject matter herein and supersedes all previous discussions, representations and agreements relating thereto.

19.2 Amendments No amendment is effective unless recorded in writing and signed by all Parties whose rights or obligations are affected. No WhatsApp message alone amends this Agreement or grants signing authority.

19.3 Severability If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

19.4 Waiver No failure or delay by any Party in exercising any right shall constitute a waiver of that right.

19.5 Counterparts This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which together shall constitute one Agreement.

19.6 Electronic Signatures This Agreement may be executed through a multi-signatory Nexora platform workflow or another electronic signing service agreed by all Parties. Each signatory must separately review and explicitly accept the same complete agreement content, using their own authenticated account and a single-use email confirmation code bound to that content's SHA-256 hash. A later signature may add execution evidence but must not alter previously accepted agreement content. Any substantive change invalidates pending approvals and requires renewed acceptance by all signatories. Account identity, capacity, acceptance, code-verification and signature timestamps, and document hashes shall be retained in a common audit record. The completed PDF shall contain all required execution records. It becomes effective only after every scheduled counterparty and Nexora have each expressly signed, with Nexora countersigning last. A pre-inserted image or stamp is not a signature. This process is not represented as a qualified electronic signature. Where required by law or separately agreed, an appropriate advanced or qualified method shall be used. English remains authoritative; translated interfaces and emails do not amend the Agreement. The Party Schedule and agreement text are fixed before release. A new Party cannot accede by unilateral administrative addition: the addition requires a new version accepted by every affected Party. An individual Party's passport number, where necessary and lawfully processed, belongs only in the access-restricted identity record and not in a circulated copy unless specifically required and agreed.
